

Maryland Anti Hazing Law (§ 3-607)

The State of Maryland also prohibits hazing and defines it as such:

- Prohibited — A person may not recklessly or intentionally do an act or create a situation that subjects a student to the risk of serious bodily injury for the purpose of initiation into a student organization of a school, college, or university.
- Penalty — A person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, is subject to imprisonment not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding $500 or both.
- Prohibited defense — The implied or expressed consent of a student to hazing is not a defense under this section. The College's anti-hazing policies apply to any and all student groups and organizations on campus. The consent of those being hazed will not be accepted as a defense for those who have been found to violate college policies on hazing.
