Dear Student and Parents,

Welcome to Johns Hopkins University Fall 2019!

In anticipation of your arrival, we have compiled some information we think is helpful this fall.

- Tuition for 2019-2020: $27,675 a semester and $55,350 annually.
- Fall tuition billing starts in July and payment is due August 25, 2019. Only the first bill statement is mailed. All other statements and communications are via email. You and your authorized users may view your account statement online in SIS.
- Spring tuition billing begins in December with payment due January 26, 2020.
- Only students can setup parents as an authorized user in the SIS Billing System. Under the personal information section – select the link to setup authorized users and follow instructions. Access gives you the ability to view statements and activity, communications and discuss financial information with the Student Accounts office.
- Tuition Management Systems manages our payment plan.
- Western Union is our vendor for Domestic and International Wires.
- Community Living for information about Housing and Dining charges.
- All of this information is located on our Homewood Student Account Website.
