- III. Request for GRO to co-sign the TRU statement demand across five thematic areas to be published to the student community.
 - Declare Hopkins a sanctuary campus.
 - Ending surveillance on the student body and deleting related data of students and workers
 1. Abolishing JHPD
 - Support the non-citizens on campus
 - Commit to fully funding all ongoing research and training projects
 - Publicly affirm the university's support for academic freedom, rigorous scientific inquiry, and its commitment to evidence-based research and clinical practice.
 - CM: Rachel (Admin) conversation on GRO, been careful with supporting TRU statement as it may be influenced by an external organization to avoid unintended impact on the University, its students, and operations.
 - Vote to either support or not to publish the statement to the graduate student body.

1. The vote passes.

IV. Floating Chairs

- Review of the description for the role for
 1. TRU liaison
 2. International Student Concern
- Gabby: Is the stipend for the positions fixed due to some requiring more than the 12.5 working hours stated
- CM: It will require bylaw change to alter the stipend for the floating chair role
- Chris: Must you be a TRU member to be a TRU liaison?
- Arman: That would be left for the e-board and GC to decide
- Vote to approve the floating chair responsibility
