Welcome to the Nest, New Blue Jays!

The Office of Orientation and First-Year Experience is pleased to present this first edition in a series of new student newsletters that will be emailed to you throughout the summer as part of our comprehensive onboarding process to Johns Hopkins.

We also want to take a moment to acknowledge all of the hard work you have put in to get where you are. In just a few short months, we will welcome you to your new home in Baltimore as one of our newest Blue Jays!

Meet the Orientation Team: Amir

I would like to welcome you to Johns Hopkins University. As you are about to start this unique chapter of your life, I hope that you are excited and ready to create memories and relationships that will last a lifetime.

I am a rising sophomore, majoring in computer science and mathematics, and a biology minor. I originally planed on going to medical school; however, I ultimately decided to follow my passion for computer science. If I could give you one piece of advice, it would be to explore new pathways and opportunities.

Orientation and First-Year Experience (OFYE) will rely on text messaging to connect with incoming students. As one of the students helping to plan Orientation, I am the person behind the text messages you will receive. Please fill out this form to receive text messages from me, or text me directly anytime at (410) 376-5710.
