12. SPORTSMANSHIP:

- The Intramural staff on duty will grade all teams on their sportsmanship and has the authority to ask anyone to leave the gymnasium. A team's sportsmanship is a reflection of its players as well as fans.
- Playing Intramural Sports is NOT a right, it is a privilege. Therefore, the Intramural program reserves the right to take away that privilege from any team or individual that does not abide by the governing rules and regulations, as well as does not exhibit good sportsmanship and fair play.
- Any player who uses foul language, violently protests a call, or curses an official or supervisor, will be removed from the game and will automatically be suspended from his/her team's next match.
- Any team that has a player ejected for an unsportsmanlike conduct, flagrant or tech will automatically receive lower than a "2.0" in conduct.
- A player that is ejected for any reason must come in to speak to the Assistant Director of Intramurals before their team's next game. The ejected player is suspended from all intramural activities until the Assistant Director of Intramurals reinstates him/her. He/She will have to make an appointment to meet with the Assistant Director of Intramurals during office hours (Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.) before he/she is eligible to participate again.
- Any player who touches an official or supervisor will be placed on suspension from all Intramural activities for a minimum period of one calendar year from the time of the incident.
- Minimum 1 game suspension for all ejections.

13. Safety and Liability

- The game of basketball is a contact sport and injuries (while mostly minor) do occur. Players should participate with this understanding. Also, participation in the Intramural Program is completely voluntary. Johns Hopkins University is not responsible for injuries incurred during intramural play. It is strongly recommended that participants have satisfactory health status.

15. Alcohol and Drug Policy

- Alcohol and Drugs are prohibited. Anyone suspected of being under the influence will be asked to leave the intramural premises. Failure to do so will result in suspension from all intramural activities.
